SEPTEMBER 27
THE GOOD SAMARITAN

LESSON
Introduction:
Who do you think of when I say the word neighbor?

What does it mean to treat someone like a neighbor?

Sometimes neighbors are people we know, and sometimes neighbors are people we don’t know. Who are some people you think of as neighbors even if you don’t know their names?

READ: SPARK BIBLE, pg. 300
Discussion Questions:
1. What kind things did the Samaritan do to help the injured man?
2. When have you been a neighbor to someone you did not know?
3. What does Jesus tell us we must do to live forever with God?
4. What is something you can do to help someone this week?
5. When have you treated someone you didn’t know with compassion and kindness?
6. How do you feel when you don’t get the help you need?

APPLICATION
In life, we face opportunities to make decisions about which people we’re willing to show God’s love to. Sometimes it’s easy to be a neighbor. Sometimes it’s hard. But Jesus shows us that the best way is to be a neighbor to everyone whenever we can.

PRAYER
Dear God, thank you for giving us neighbors all over the world. Help us to love them the same way that you love us.
Amen.

ACTIVITY – Good Samaritan Helping Hands
Supplies needed:
- Scissors
- Hole Punch
- Markers, crayons, pen or pencil
ACTIVITY – Good Samaritan Helping Hands

Instructions:

Step 1. Help kids trace and cut out four handprints from construction paper. These should all be made with the same hand, either right or left. Use one handprint as the cover of the “Helping Hands Book.”

Step 2. Have children identify someone they will try to help this week or in the near future. On each side of the handprints, instruct the kids to draw out and write down ways they will try to help the person they have chosen. For example if they are helping their mother they could write “Make My Bed,” and draw an illustration of doing this.

Step 3. Guide children in layering their handprints together, punching 1 hole on the wrist side, and binding the booklet with yarn.
The Good Samaritan

The Samaritan helped the injured man and paid for the innkeeper to care for him. Who helps you when you are hurt?
